BIH WINES WERE PRESENTED AT FAMOUS FAIR IN TOKYO

2 kinds of BiH wine from VINO Manastir Tvrdoš (Trebinje), Vranac 2013 and Žilavka 2015, and 1 from Vinogradi Nuić (Ljubuški) Trnjak 2013 were presented at 91th World Liquor and Cheese Festival held from 12 to 18 April 2017 in Tokyo, Japan.

More than 900 kinds of wine from the world are being exhibited and sold at this Fair. Those wines are also being sold at high-grade department store named DAIMARU, same like level of Harrods in London, U.K.

Shigehiko Nishihama, Representative of FIPA in Japan, presented on this occasion the BiH wines by introducing directly them to Japanese consumers.

Japanese consumers enjoyed tasting BiH wine and they were very surprised by its high quality, especially, VINO Manastir Tvrdoš Vranac 2013 and Vinogradi Nuić Trnjak 2013. Thanks to the efforts of Mr Nishihama, in January 2014, for the first time, BiH started exporting the BiH wines to Japan. Japanese import company named M & P Corporation (Tokyo) decided to import total 9 kinds of BiH wine (6 Red, 3 White) from 2 wineries, Vinograd Nuić (Ljubuški) and VINO Manastira Tvrdoš (Trebinje) in January 2014.

These 9 kinds of BiH wine are being sold at stores and on the Web-site shopping mall in Japan, for example, as follows; <http://item.rakuten.co.jp/chichukai/c/0000000358/>

FIPA Representative Mr Nishihama has good relations with BiH wineries more than 12 years, he visited their wineries and promoted the quality of BiH wine to Japanese. He will continue to do best for promoting and growing BiH wine in Japanese markets without any budget allocated by BiH.

FIPA AT VIENNA ECONOMIC TALKS IN BELGRADE

The Director of the Foreign Investment Promotion Agency of BiH (FIPA) Gordan Milinić participated on 22 May 2017 in Belgrade at the Vienna Economic Talks.

At the panel entitled “Regional cooperation on the EU path,” the Director Milinić spoke about the investment potentials of the region, previous cooperation and proposals for improving future cooperation. He pointed out that only through mutual cooperation and more intensive promotion of the region we can attract significant attention of the world business community.

“Countries in the region can only through cooperation provide stability and long-term prosperity, and it is necessary that the economic connection between countries in the region is constantly improving with strengthening the competitiveness. Coordinated action is essential for further enhancement of the regional cooperation and the economic development, and for intensifying the process of the European integration, as a key strategic commitment of countries in the region.

The EU influence is very important for more intensive regional cooperation. Despite the many challenges it is facing, EU must strengthen its presence in the Western Balkans through a clear European perspective and acceleration of the accession process, intensify further democratization and transformation of the region’s countries “said Milinić.

After the official panel, the FIPA Director had meetings with representatives of foreign companies who wanted to know more information about the situation in Bosnia and Herzegovina, incentives and tax system, as well as attractive sectors and projects ready for implementation.

During the panel, a special attention was focused on the opinion of Mr Milinić related to the transformation of CEFTA in the regional custom union.

FIPA ORGANIZED A CONFERENCE ON INVESTMENT OPPORTUNITIES IN THE AGRICULTURE AND FOOD PROCESSING SECTOR OF B&H AS PART OF THE INTERNATIONAL AGRICULTURAL FAIR IN NOVI SAD

The Foreign Investment Promotion Agency of BiH (FIPA) and the Development Agency of Serbia organized on 16 May a panel on the topic of "Attracting Foreign Direct Investments in Agriculture and Food Production in Bosnia and Herzegovina and Serbia", as part of the International Agricultural Fair in Novi Sad.

The panel was opened by the Director of FIPA Gordan Milinić who emphasized the importance of agriculture and food production for the economic development of BiH and basic information on potentials for investing in this sector, as well as the services of FIPA as the Agency of the Council of Ministers of BiH.

During the panel, a FIPA representative had a presentation on the basic reasons for investing in BiH, characteristics of the sector of fruits and vegetables, livestock, dairy, meat processing, and presented some of available investment projects for investing. As an example of successful foreign investment in this sector, Almir Mukača, representative of the company Fress Ltd Sarajevo spoke about their experience in business in Bosnia and Herzegovina.

FIPA LED 24 COMPANIES OF BiH AT MACFRUT 2017

The Foreign Investment Promotion Agency of BiH (FIPA), together with 36 representatives of 24 companies of BiH, participated at the International Agricultural Fair of Macfrut 2017, which was held from 10th to 12th May 2017, in Rimini, Italy.

Representatives of the FIPA and companies of BiH established successful contacts with exhibitors at the fair, and had during two days more than two hundred meetings with Italian companies, which showed interest in BiH. In the period to come, it is expected to realize concrete cooperation between the two countries.

Investment opportunities in the agricultural sector of Bosnia and Herzegovina were presented during meetings with Italian companies.

Representatives of the BiH companies, which FIPA led this year to Macfrut, are satisfied with established contacts and expressed their gratitude for opportunity to visit leading Italian Agricultural Fair.

In addition to B2B meetings, the presentation of modern agricultural equipment and logistics solutions was organized for participants.

This year, the 34th International Fair Macfrut 2017 was attended by exhibitors from 40 countries from five continents.

FIPA PROMOTED ADVANTAGES FOR INVESTING IN BIH AT THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE EBRD

The Director of the Foreign Investment Promotion Agency of BiH (FIPA) Gordan Milinić presented the activities of the Agency to improve the business environment in BiH and promoted attractive investment projects in the panel “Bosnia and Herzegovina Investment Outlook Session” within the Annual General Meeting and Business Forum of the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development EBRD held from 9 to 11 May in Cyprus.

More than two thousand statesmen, ministers, governors, bankers, businessmen and investors from more than 60 countries participated at this meeting. One of the events within the forum was the panel “Bosnia and Herzegovina Investment Outlook Session”.

The panel dedicated to BiH was attended by a large number of businessmen and representatives of the financial world from more than 60 countries. Potential investors were interested in having additional information and explanations from the Minister Šarović and the Director Milinić on the political situation in the country, rights of investors, tax and education system and operating costs.

Mr Milinić also presented activities of the Network for Cooperation for Post-Investment Support to Investors and proposed measures of FIPA to improve the business environment. He also spoke about the services that FIPA provides to potential and existing investors in order to present more closely its activities and engagement.

FIPA PRESENTED INVESTMENT OPPORTUNITIES TO INVESTORS FROM THE UNITED ARAB EMIRATES

Business Forum Bosnia and Herzegovina - United Arab Emirates was held on 8 May in Sarajevo. On this occasion, the representative of FIPA Nina Pobrić had a presentation about positive aspects of the business environment of BiH and attractive sectors for investing and investment projects.

The business delegation from the UAE was composed of representatives of more than 20 companies. The FIPA representative informed potential investors on attractive projects for investing in the sectors of food and agriculture, real estate and tourism (especially health resorts and spas).

B2B meetings were also organized and more information on the projects were provided. Many companies had for the first time opportunity for getting information on all aspects of the business in BiH.

A representative of Zera Agriculture Investment Ltd had a presentation of their experience in running business in BiH.

FIPA PARTICIPATED AT THE ECONOMIC FORUM OF BOSNIA AND HERZEGOVINA AND GERMANY

The Deputy Director of FIPA Blaženka Mišković, as a keynote speaker in the panel discussion, “Experience, opportunities and Perspectives of German-BiH Economic Cooperation” took part at Bosnia and Herzegovina-Germany Business Forum “New Ways of Joint Cooperation”, held in Berlin on 12 May 2017.

The Deputy Director pointed out that despite the many challenges faced by BiH, there are great opportunities for German investors who want to expand their business activities outside of the EU market. She stressed that foreign investors, having overcome initial barriers, are successfully operating in Bosnia and Herzegovina and reinvest their profit. This was also confirmed by the representatives of German companies that have already operated in Bosnia and Herzegovina.

Representatives of the German companies: GS – Machines Factory Travnik, ProCredit Bank AG Deutschland, Veritas AG, Robotics Center in Tuzla, Hemofarm Group shared on this occasion their experiences on business conditions in BiH.

According to representatives of these companies, one of the biggest challenges they face is the lack of manpower and the emigration of young and educated people from Bosnia and Herzegovina.

The forum was organized by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of BiH, Embassy of Bosnia and Herzegovina in Germany, with the support of the German Ministry of Economy and Energy in Berlin. It was attended by more than 100 representatives of business, political and public life of Bosnia and Herzegovina, Germany and other countries.

NEW INVESTMENTS START IN BOSANSKO GRAHOVO

...AND MORE NEWS...

NEW INVESTMENTS START IN BOSANSKO GRAHOVO

The Director of the company Progress Ltd from Novi Sad Aleksandar Radun visited FIPA in order to invest in the municipality of Bosansko Grahovo. Investment is related to the sheep farm with the initial flock of 1,000 sheep of the breed Romanov with the intention of further enlargement of farm to 7,000 and then to 20,000 sheep. The investor will employ 65 workers.

Considering that this is one of the most underdeveloped areas in Bosnia and Herzegovina, coming of investors represents a great opportunity for the local people employment and development of the Municipality and supporting activities.

According to investors, Bosansko Grahovo has ideal conditions for practicing sustainable livestock breeding.

It is also planned to start production of animal feed, and investor is also interested in investing in the sector of tourism and solar and wind energy.
